

Grand Union Youth Orchestra of East London &
Havering Music School

Samba Workshop and Performance

As part of

ROMFEST 2009

WHO'S IT FOR?

Young musicians from Havering and across East London are invited to come to a Samba workshop run by Grand Union Youth Orchestra of East London, a world-music ensemble of talented young musicians.

If you play a woodwind/brass or percussion instrument then bring it along, or if you would like to try your hand at percussion for the first time, we will provide you will an instrument. All you'll needs bags of energy and enthusiasm.

WHAT IS IT?

An opportunity to play with and learn from world-class musicians from Grand Union Orchestra as they work with young musicians from the Grand Union Youth Orchestra and other young musicians from East London. The free workshop will focus on Samba music, introducing melodies and rhythms, followed by a public performance of the work achieved outside in the Market place.

WHERE IS IT?

St Edwards Church
Church House
Market Pl, Romford, RM13AB

WHEN IS IT?

The workshop will start at 3:30pm and will last for about 2 hours, with a public performance in the market place to finish.

This workshop is completely free and open to all young musicians with an interest in world-music. To book a place please contact Grand Union:

020 7375 1122

Hannah@grandunion.org.uk

76 Wentworth Street, London, E1 7SA

www.grandunionyouth.org.uk